DESCRIPTION

The Government has requested a TA is to support (i) in-depth review of the early status of the development of the SSE schools and system (1998 and 2001), and (ii) initial establishment and operationalization of monitoring and evaluation functions within CSSE. The in-depth review will focus on assessment of external and internal efficiency, as well as adequacy of recurrent budget at a sample of new SSE schools. Results will be used to explore options and strategies for maximizing efficiency and effectiveness of the SSE sector. Findings will be presented and disseminated in time for the NPPT review in 2001, hence permitting integration into the NPPT strategies for 2002 and beyond. Concurrently, the TA will development of monitoring and evaluation functions and tools for the SSE sector, to pave ways for provision of timely and reliable management information on the SSE system and program.

(This technical assistance is piggybacked to Senior Secondary Education loan.)
