

Comment on ADB's 1994 Disclosure and Information Policies

TO: disclosure@adb.org

FROM: Ofel L. Irabon
Librarian, WorldFish Center
Philippines

DATE: 11 September 2003

Dear Mr. Salamon:

Greetings!

I have received a letter from you regarding the ADB's Policy on Confidentiality and Disclosure of Information.

Yes I have requested and even received unrequested but very useful materials from ADB since a year. I have been answered politely by your staff there specially from the library and publications. My requests for some materials are granted with promptness. Just continue publishing your materials electronically so that it is more accessible and can save space for small libraries, and also granting the request of your patrons for hardcopies if they need to.

I am quite content with your current Disclosure Policy.

Thank you very much.

The views expressed in this paper are the views of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Asian Development Bank (ADB), or its Board of Directors or the governments they represent. ADB makes no representation concerning and does not guarantee the source, originality, accuracy, completeness or reliability of any statement, information, data, finding, interpretation, advice, opinion, or view presented.