Dear Mr. Robert H Salamon,

First of all I would like to inform you that we have already received your letter dated August 13, 2003. Thank you very much. I am so sorry when those letter arrived I had on leave for holliday untill the 24 th of August 2003, but now I start to work again.

Secondly, I also would like inform you that the Airlangga University Library as a depository library of ADB up to now try to manage and disseminate the ADB collection and information to our users (University community) especially , and to all the citizen community in our country who looking for information related with ADB information.

Further more I want to let you know that ADB information that we have received from your office we alre dy put on our website. More then 1600 information can retrieve by users through the internet. Therefore, in the future when you send us all kind information / collection from your office please give us a note whether those information in the catagories of "confidential", "for official use only" or "unclassified", because we are quite apprehensive about that.

Finally relate to your letter I suggest you:

1. The provision of ADB operational information not only in printed but also in CD (digitally) format.
2. The changes that I fill you should made is: you 'll be better for setting up an "ADB Corner" (or what ever) at all your depository library you already have (including Airlangga University Library). Through the "ADB corner" may be more efficient to facilitate users to access ADB information not only what we provide in site but we also be able to motivate them to make use the ADB information.

Thank you very much. Your attention and good cooperation to Airlangga University Library is highly appreciated. With best regards.

Sincerely yours

Ratnaningsih (Miss)
Coordinator ADB Depository of Airlangga University Library.
