

ALBERT E. FRY
37 rue de Zurich
CH 1201 Geneva, Switzerland
tel 41 22 731 6073

Consultant in Environmental and Sustainable Development Issues

Work Experience:

1974 - 1978 -Director of Policy Planning - U. S. Environmental Protection Agency (Washington D. C.) Plus ten years with other Executive Branch agencies of U. S. Government – Office of Emergency Preparedness and Office of Management and Budget

1978 - 1985 – U. S. Business Roundtable - Environment, Energy and Product Liability Task Forces (Washington, D. C.)

1986 - 1990 - Director International Environmental Bureau (Geneva)

1990 - 1992 - Business Council for Sustainable Development (Geneva) prepared 37 case studies for inclusion in Changing Course, A Global Business Perspective on Development and the Environment

1992 - 1995 - Consultant to various business and UN organizations

1996 - present –World Business Council for Sustainable Development – (Geneva) – Program Manager - Consultant

Recent Publications:

Business and Climate Change, Case Studies in Greenhouse Gas Reduction (1997)

Industry, Fresh Water and Sustainable Development (1998)

Partnerships in Practice (2000)

Water for the Poor (2002)

Education:

Rutgers University - B.A. in Political Science - 1956

University of Pennsylvania Advanced degrees in History – 1957 & 1960

Stanford University - Fellow in the U. S. Government's Educational Program in Systems Analysis – 1970 - 1971

Volunteer School Teacher in Accra, Ghana 1960- 1962