

2004 MfDR ACTION PLAN

Table A3.1: Desired IMPACT of ADB interventions and other factors: Within 2015, achieving poverty reduction in the Region

	Elements of the results chain for which ADB can be held accountable		Will depend on many factors only some of which are undertaken by ADB
PILLAR 1: Improving results orientation at the DMC level	Develop and implement appropriate approaches to capacity building in DMCs.	DMC participation at relevant workshops and consultations.	By the end of 2005: Results orientation being implemented in national plans in at least 5 DMCs.
	Efforts will include awareness raising, dialogue, regional workshops, and production of toolkits.	Materials produced.	Progress measured by the increasing number of DMCs producing results-oriented national development plans.
	The Marrakech Roundtable on Results will be followed by stocktaking of initiatives on results at country level, seminars and workshops, dialogue, and dissemination of best practices.
	ADB's technical assistance to DMCs to formulate and implement results-oriented national poverty reduction strategies will continue.
PILLAR 2: Improving result orientation at the institutional level in ADB	Awareness raising, coaching, and capacity building efforts at the institutional level.	Meetings, workshops and seminars for staff	By the end of 2005: Increased performance of ADB as assessed by a set of indicators to be developed.
	Individual departments will prepare results-oriented work programs and, in the process, familiarize staff with concepts of MfDR.	Developing results-oriented departmental work plans.	Beyond 2005, progress measured by use of indicators as developed above.

	Elements of the results chain for which ADB can be held accountable		Will depend on many factors only some of which are undertaken by ADB
	Focused coaching and workshops for senior management to clarify and support the role and responsibilities of management in MfDR. Informal sessions with Board of Directors.	Relevant information materials produced
	Stocktaking and assessment of readiness.	Report produced	Action plan updated regularly
	Develop template for results-based country strategies, combined with a set of indicators to measure and monitor progress of implementation of the CSPs.	Minimum of two results-based country strategies as pilots be initiated.	Results-based CSPs mainstreamed in ADB by 2006
	Develop and implement adequate support mechanisms such as information technology, HR strategy, etc.	Implementation of adequate support mechanisms	Beyond 2005, progress measured by use of indicators
	Improve result orientation of lending and non-lending projects/programs.	Action plan prepared.	Procedures in place by end of 2005
PILLAR 3: Improving results through partnerships with other institutions	Participate in partnerships with MDBs, OECD-DAC and other partners	Visible presence in all relevant partnerships	An Asian and Pacific perspective influencing and influenced by international perspectives. Same as above

ADB = Asian Development Bank, CSP = Country Strategy Program, DAC = Development Assistance Committee, DMC = developing member country, MDB = Multilateral Development Bank, MfDR = Managing for Development Results, OECD = Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development.

Source: Operations Evaluation Department based on the Managing for Development Results in ADB: 2004 Action Plan.