

International Conference

16–18 October 2007 • Asian Development Bank, Manila, Philippines

Gul Nurgalieva
President
National Center for Informatization, Kazakhstan

Identifying, Developing, Evaluating, Testing and Using Local e-content. Experience on Kazakhstan

Gul was a secondary school English teacher from 1971 to 1975. From 1980 to 1985 she was a Candidate of Pedagogical Sciences at the Russian State Pedagogical University in St Petersburg and was awarded her Doctorate of Pedagogical Sciences in 1994 from the Kazakh State Pedagogical University, Kazakhstan. She has participated in and presented papers at numerous international conferences including the International Scientific-Practical Conference IITE UNESCO, Moscow 2003, the International Conference on Distance education, teacher preparation and technology training Moscow IITE UNESCO, 2004, the International scientific-practical conference DE of pupils based on using Information and Communication Technologies organised in Moscow by the UNESCO Institute, 2004 and the International Conference Using Up-To-Date Information and Communication Technologies in Humanities Education where she presented a joint paper with Claudia Chang on the Comparative Analysis of e-learning Materials on the Archaeology of Central Asia and the History of Kazakhstan.

She participated in the Kazakhstan-Singapore Project on the equipment of Kazakhstan schools with Multimedia rooms and prepared a research paper for IITE UNESCO on Distance education using information and communication technologies (ICT) for secondary schools of the remote regions in Kazakhstan.

She has also organized four International conferences on Developing Informatization in Education (2001, 2002, 2003, 2004). She is an active member of the International Informatization Academy (IIA).

