

Kwok kit Chiu is the Assistant Commissioner, Field Audit and Investigation of the Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong, China. He is responsible for policy matters and strategies concerning tax audits and investigation. He was involved in tax audits and investigation for seven years and in tax appeals and litigation for eleven years. He has also three years of experience in bank taxation.