

Michael Kobetsky is a member of the University of Melbourne, Faculty of Law and also holds appointments at the Australian National University, College of Law and the Monash University, Taxation Law and Policy Research Institute. He has extensive work experience in taxation, designing tax law and policies for ten years in the policy and legislation group of the Australian Taxation Office. He is the principal author of one of Australian leading taxation texts which is now in its sixth edition and has published extensively on international taxation in journals in Australia, Canada and Europe. He has presented seminars and conference papers in Australia; New Zealand; Europe; People's Republic of China; and Taipei, China. In 2006 he participated in the Study Group on Asian Tax Administrations and Research 4th joint training seminar hosted by Taipei, China. He is a fellow of the Taxation Institute of Australia, and a member of the International Fiscal Association, the Australasian Tax Teachers Association, and the Australian Law Teachers Association.