

Satya Poddar is a partner at Ernst & Young Pvt. Ltd where for he was – for 17 years -- a senior tax partner in charge of VAT advisory services to financial institutions, tax policy services and international VAT. He was appointed Commissioner of the Ontario Fair Tax Commission in 1999 where he was involved in major researches on sales tax/VAT, corporation income tax, personal income tax and aboriginal taxation. He was a consultant at the European Commission, Gulf Cooperation Council, IMF Technical Mission to Korea, and to various countries. He has written extensively on a wide range of taxation topics such as treatment of tax losses, VAT on financial services, commodity taxation, VAT at the state level, and issues on tax reform process.