Mr. Ronald Cartagena's career spans government, private sector, and the academe. He is currently the program manager for the City Competitiveness Program at the Asian Institute of Management Policy Center.

Prior to joining AIM Policy Center in 2007, Mr. Cartagena worked with the League of Cities of the Philippines as Senior Policy Officer for Urban Development and Environment, where he wrote 'Pursuing Metropolitan Idea in the Philippines' Policy Paper published in the LCP Policy Manual on July 2006. He was similarly involved in previous studies and policy work as a research associate of Angel Lazaro and Associates, the External Monitoring Agent of the Sixth ADB-DPWH Road Project: Social Impact and Compensation, the evaluation of the Philippine experience of ADB's involuntary resettlement policy focusing on the Pasig River Environmental Management and Rehabilitation Sector Development Project and with the Consultants for Comprehensive Environmental Planning (CONCEP), Makati City Government, as planning associate. Before doing his involvement in the above projects, he taught social sciences in Manila and Iloilo City.

Mr. Cartagena's field of expertise includes urban planning, solid waste management, urban water resources management, and sustainable transportation. He is a licensed environmental planner, teacher and career service professional. He has a Bachelors of Arts degree in Philosophy from St. Vincent Ferrer Seminary and a Diploma in Urban and Regional Planning from the University of the Philippines-Visayas. He is a candidate for Master of Arts in Urban and Regional Planning at the School of Urban and Regional Planning in University of the Philippines-Diliman.
