

Recruitment Announcement

50-60 People to Arbitrate Commercial Disputes for National Arbitration Center of Cambodia (NAC)

In accordance with Sub-Decree No. 124 ANKR/BT on the Organization and Functioning of the National Arbitration Center of Cambodia (NAC), dated August 21, 2009, the Inception and Selection Commission, chaired by the Ministry of Commerce, is recruiting fifty (50) to sixty (60) applicants to be the first arbitrators of the NAC. Provided they meet the qualifications listed below, applicants can be either gender and Cambodian or foreign nationals.

Qualifications

a. The applicant must fulfill the following criteria:

- age (30) years or more;
- possess a Bachelor's Degree in any subject from a local or foreign university; and
- have at least three (3) years working experience.

If lacking the qualifications specified above, the applicant must:

- be a member of a professional commercial arbitration institution, recognized by the Commission; or
- have served as an arbitrator or representative in commercial arbitration proceedings on at least three (3) or more occasions, or have written at least three (3) or more arbitral awards while serving as an arbitrator in commercial disputes.

b. Applicant must not:

- be an officer of any executive, legislative or judicial branch of the Royal Government of Cambodia
- have been convicted of any misdemeanor or felony

c. A total of not less than fifty (50) commercial arbitrators shall registered as arbitrators of the NAC after they successfully completed the arbitration skills training organized by the Commission.

Application Process

Applications will be accepted during working hours, starting from September 29, 2009 up to 1700 Hours on October 20, 2009. The Commission will stop accepting applications once it has received qualified 60 applications.

For application forms, further information and submission of applications, please contact the Inception and Selection Commission's Secretariat located in Department of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Commerce, or visit the Ministry of Commerce's homepage at www.moc.gov.kh.