

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This report was carried out in partnership with the Department of Small Industry and Handicraft of the Ministry of Industry, Mines and Energy as the executing agency. The project team would like to thank the following ministries and organizations for their participation on the Consultative Group for the Private Sector Assessment, which was led by the Ministry of Industry Mines and Energy. Without the benefit of their information, experience and opinions the Private Sector Assessment would not have been possible.

- Ministry of Industry, Mines and Energy;
- Ministry of Economy and Finance;
- Ministry of Commerce;
- Council for the Development of Cambodia;
- National Bank of Cambodia;
- Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fishery;
- Ministry of Tourism;
- Ministry of Women's and Veterans Affairs; and
- Chamber of Commerce of Cambodia.

These ministries dedicated much time to the team to assure it had the information necessary to carry out this private sector assessment.

The team would also like to acknowledge the inputs received from the many donor organizations, including the World Bank, International Finance Corporation, International Monetary Fund, Mekong Project Development Facility and several bilateral donors. The team would also like to thank the many enterprises interviewed as well as the major NGOs and business associations. The team greatly appreciates the contribution of the legal professionals and consultants that contributed time, information and recommendations to this study. Since the private sector involves such a wide range of topics and issues, it has been vital to have the support from these organizations and individuals. The team would also like to thank the government, donor, NGO and private sector participants of the two workshops held at the Le Royale Hotel in Phnom Penh in May and June of 2003. The feedback provided in these workshops was useful in making revisions to the private sector assessment and providing a greater understanding of the major issues.
