Asian Development Bank assistance

Many ADB staff have contributed to the publication, in particular, Sonomi Tanaka, on social analysis; David McCauley, on environmental analysis; Neil Britton, on disaster-risk management; and Claudia Buentjen and Florian Steinberg, on capacity development. K.E. Seetharam and Diwesh Sharam helped in reviewing drafts. The country directors and staff of the People's Republic of China, India, Pakistan, and Thailand resident missions gave their time to the workshops and help to the country consultants.

Participants from the People's Republic of China, India, Pakistan, Philippines, and Thailand

Many government officials and representatives of civil society, the academe, and the private sector participated in the workshops and provided invaluable inputs and data to the study.
