1 INITIAL TRAINING WORKSHOPS

During the Inception mission from 25 Aug to 12 Sept 2002, the project team provided initial training workshops in Lanzhou and Nanning. The dates of these workshops were August 27 and 29, respectively. The objective of these initial training workshops was to introduce the concept of CDM and small-scale projects, introduce the objectives of this project, and identify provincial counterparts to participate in the project. The agenda and attendees of these workshops are provided below.

4 MID-TERM WORKSHOP

The Mid-Term Workshop was held on 25 March 2003 in Beijing. Its objective was to review and seek comments of key stakeholders in government and donor agencies on the recommended small-scale CDM pilot projects, policy and financing options and project handbook being developed under this project. Details of these 8 projects were presented at the Mid-Term Workshop to allow discussion of their merits by the government and the ADB. The provincial counterparts attended and discussed their assessment to date of the process for developing CDM project.
