Demand for Good Governance (DFGG) Project

Storyline

Building Blocks of DFGG

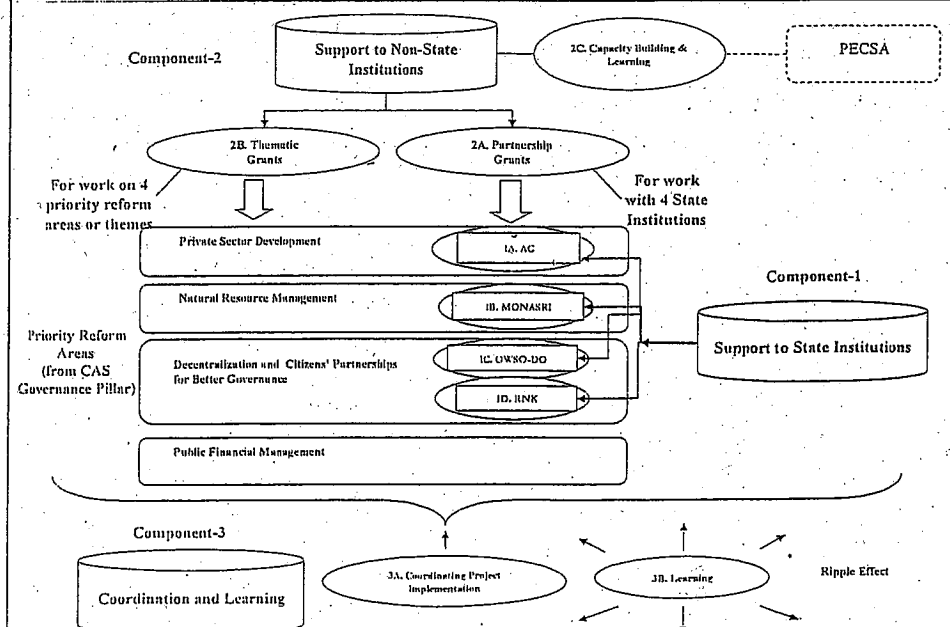

Project Principles

Focus on:

1. Institutions
2. Existing institutions
3. Islands of good governance (and champions)
4. Both state and non-state institutions
5. Constructive engagement
6. Long-term and gradual approach
7. Flexible design

Summary of the Project's Main Elements

Risks

1. Related to project development objective

- Project life is too short
- Partnerships and initiatives supported by the project will not be sustained

2. Related to state institutions

- Corruption and/or use of project resources for patronage purposes
- Politically sensitive activities get funded through Component 2 grants, creating controversy and conflict with Government

3. Related to non-state institutions

- Lack of demand for grants
 - Grant funds are not used for intended purposes
 - Grant recipients lack legitimacy in not truly representing citizen concerns
