

ANTONIO R. DE VERA

TA Coordinator, Energy, Transport and Water Division
Regional and Sustainable Development Department
Asian Development Bank

Educational Background

- BS Civil Engineering, Mapua Institute of Technology (MIT) (1971)
- Masters in Business Administration, Ateneo de Manila University (1978)
- Graduate, Administrative Management Institute, University of Pittsburgh, USA (1976)

Areas of Expertise and Interest

- Implementation of water projects and its entire project cycle
- Institutional Development and Assessment
- Handling of training sessions related to project management, institutional development, leadership and corporate planning
- Regulation of water institutions

Current work

- Chairman, Subic Bay Water Regulatory Board
- ADB TA Coordinator on SSWN Pilot Projects

Past Experience in ADB

- None

Experience Prior to ADB

- Water & Waste Water Consultant for National Water Resources Board, National Anti-Poverty Commission Water Program, San Mateo Lagoon Operations, World Bank WPEP 1 and WPEP 2 Programs, JBIC's MWSS Study, Subic Bay Metropolitan Authority, Clark Development Authority, KFW Water & Sanitation III, Bicol River Basin Commission
- Corporate Planning/Team Building Consultant for SOS International Group, Noble House Group, Jose Reyes Memorial Hospital, Emerald Headway Inc., the San Jose del Monte, Sorsogon, Butuan, San Fernando (Pampanga) and Davao City Water Districts; Camp John Hay Dev't Co.
- With the Local Water Utilities Administration (LWUA), Vice-Chairman of the Board (1998-2000), Administrator (1992-1998), Deputy Administrator (1991-1992), Corporate Planning Department Manager (1988-1991), Chief Engineer (1981-1988), Project Planning Department Manager (1978-1981), Water Resources Department Manager (1982), Deputy Project Manager for Bulacan Bulk Water Project (1987)
- Project Engineer (1971-1973), Concrete Aggregates and Land Innovators Incorporated

Professional Memberships and Selected Publications

- Past President, Philippine Water Works Association (PWWA)
- Member, Society of the Philippine Accredited Consultants
- Honorary Member, Philippine Society of Sanitary Engineers