Description	The TA aims to enhance capacity and expertise in Mongolia to identify, develop, and undertake CDM projects. This will be achieved by developing a capacity building plan, enhancing the capacity of national CDM experts and government agencies, andundertaking promotional activities encouraging CDM projects. The initiatives being undertaken by MON and those undertaken as a consequence of capacity building under the TA are expected to contribute to reducing GHG emissions in the long term. The CDM projects initiated are expected to also lead to greater efficiency in energy use in the country.
Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy
Impact	The project will enhance the capacity in Mongolia to undertake CDM projects and to contribute to the reduction of GHG emissions in Mongolia.
Project Outcome
Description of Outcome	The main outcomes include (i) capacity building of government officials in the relevant agencies including the Ministry of Nature and Environment and the Ministry of Mining and Energy, through training and awareness programs leading to enhanced capacity to undertake CDM projects; (ii) assessment of the potential for the future CDM projects; (iii) capacity building to develop CDM project design document (PDD); and (iv) best practice examples of CDM implementation in other countries like PRC.
