Description	The transaction technical assistance (TRTA) is a subproject under Technical Assistance Cluster 0013-INO: Sustainable Infrastructure Assistance Program as agreed with the Australian Government Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade. The TRTA supports the implementation of the Integrated Participatory Development and Management of Irrigation Program, specifically on (i) strengthening financial management system and capacity towards results based financing; (ii) upgrading the monitoring and evaluation system and procedures to ensure timely and accurate reporting of the Program and disbursement linked indicators (DLIs); and (iii) strengthening capacity to verify achievement of the DLIs and the program action plan.
Project Rationale and Linkage to Country/Regional Strategy	The TRTA is included in ADB's country operations business plan, 2017 -2019 for Indonesia. The TRTA is supporting the Ministry of Public Works and Housing in effectively implementing the Integrated Participatory Development and Management of Irrigation Program to accelerate the delivery of the 2015-2019 National Medium Term Development Plan targets.
