Description
The TA will support specific activities of the SEAMEO College which will be mainly the delivery of capacity building modules for education ministers, policy makers, education practitioners, and youth leaders in ASEAN-wide education and human resource development (HRD) issues.

Impact
Regional education and HRD innovations for a more integrated ASEAN community

Project Outcome
Strengthened capacity of education leaders and practitioners to address ASEAN-wide education and HRD issues

Progress Toward Outcome
An education conference with the participation of senior officials and ministers from all ASEAN countries has been conducted in 2015. Various working groups are established with the participation of education leaders and practitioners to prepare policy recommendations to further harmonize education content and structures in ASEAN.

Implementation Progress
1. Knowledge on regional frameworks for common standards in education and HRD enhanced and shared among education policy makers
2. Regional and country case studies on innovative solutions to ASEAN-wide education and HRD issues developed and disseminated
3. Policy options for promoting learning and innovations among education practitioners and youth leaders identified
4. Research capacity of SEAMEO College enhanced
5. Institutional linkages of SEAMEO regional centers as integral constituents of SEAMEO College strengthened
