Gender Champion

The key focus of this award will be the participating banks’ continued demonstration and expansion of their support for increased employment, retention, and progression of women in the workplace.

How does your bank champion gender initiatives?

1. Executive summary. Provide a 200-word write-up on why your bank should be recognized as the ADB TFP 2020 Gender Champion.

2. Details of policies and activities. In addition to the summary, provide details on how your bank has progressed with the specific gender recommendations provided by and discussed with TFP in 2017-2020. Include supporting evidences such as policies, documents, outcomes, impact, data in a write-up with 500 (maximum 1,000) words.

3. Future gender initiatives. Describe any other gender initiatives that you have implemented or that you are planning to implement in the future. Include supporting evidences such as policies, documents, outcomes, impact, data in a write-up with 500 words.

Who can participate?
- All TFP issuing and confirming banks may participate.

How to participate?
- All written nominations must be submitted via email to Clarissa Laysa at mlaysa.consultant@adb.org on or before 25 September 2020.
- Judging of winners will be done by an independent panel from 28 September to 2 October. Winners will be notified via email. Online awarding is on 28 October, 4pm SGT.