

Book Launch: Enhancing SME Participation in Global Value Chains:
Determinants, Challenges, and Policy Recommendation
19 March 2021, Online

Biographies of the Speakers
(Order by Appearance)

Peter Morgan, Senior Consulting Economist, Vice Chair, ADBI

Peter Morgan is ADBI Senior Consulting Economist and Vice Chair of Research. Previously, he served in Hong Kong, China as Chief Asia Economist for HSBC where he was responsible for macroeconomic analysis and forecasting for Asia. Before that, he was Chief Japan Economist for HSBC. His research focuses are macroeconomic policy and financial sector regulation, reform, financial development, financial inclusion, fintech, financial literacy, and financial education. He earned his MA and PhD in economics from Yale University.

Shujiro Urata, ADBI visiting fellow, professor emeritus at Waseda University

Shujiro Urata is ADBI visiting fellow and professor emeritus at Waseda University. He also holds positions such as faculty fellow at the Research Institute of Economy, Trade, and Industry, and senior research advisor at the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia. He was a research associate at the Brookings Institution and an economist at the World Bank. He received his PhD in Economics from Stanford University. His research interests include trade, investment, and regional economic integration.

Shandre Thangavelu, Sunway University and University of Adelaide

Shandre Thangavelu is a professor at the Jeffrey Cheah Institute for Southeast Asia of Sunway University, Malaysia, and the Institute for International Trade at the University of Adelaide, Australia. He is an active researcher on human capital development, technology transfer, foreign direct investment, trade, government infrastructure investment, productivity, and economic growth. Currently, he is working on human capital dynamics and FDI activities in Cambodia, Lao PDR, Viet Nam and Indonesia. He obtained his graduate degrees from Queen's University, Canada.

Upalat Korwatanasakul, Waseda University, Japan

Upalat Korwatanasakul is an assistant professor at School of Social Sciences, Waseda University, Japan, with interest in a wide range of economic and social development topics in East and Southeast Asia such as digital economy, global value chains, informal economy, labor market, and small and medium-sized enterprises. He holds a PhD in International Studies majoring in Development Economic Analysis from the Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies, Waseda University.

B C H Maduwanthi, Uva Wellassa University, Sri Lanka

B C H Maduwanthi is a lecturer at the Faculty of Agriculture of Uva Wellassa University, Sri Lanka. Previously, she worked at the Department of Agribusiness Management, Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka. She holds MSc in Management from University of Sri Jayewardenepura and acquired supplementary training at Ritsumeikan University, Japan. Her research interests are regional and global integration of Asian frontier stock markets, farm Income diversification and climate change adaptation, and rural development & farmer market participation.