SOVEREIGN OPERATIONS¹

A. Scope

1. The Agreement Establishing the Asian Development Bank (the Charter) provides that operations of the Asian Development Bank (ADB) will principally finance specific projects, including those forming part of a national, subregional, or regional development program. ADB may provide or facilitate financing to any member, or any agency, instrument, or political subdivision thereof, or any entity or enterprise operating in the territory of a member, as well as to international or regional agencies or entities concerned with economic development of the region. In selecting suitable projects, ADB prioritizes regional, subregional, and national projects and programs that will contribute most effectively to the harmonious economic growth of the region, and gives special regard to the needs of the smaller or less-developed member countries in the region. (endnote i). ADB’s Midterm Review of Strategy 2020 provides the strategic priorities (endnote ii), which is discussed in further detail in the respective country partnership strategies.²

B. Procedures

2. Before a loan³ is granted, the Charter requires the loan applicant to submit an adequate loan proposal and the President to present to the Board of Directors a written report regarding the proposal, together with his recommendations, on the basis of a staff study (endnote iii). The President’s recommendation and the staff study are integrated into a single report and recommendation of the President (RRP) (endnote iv). Specific Board-approved policies and procedures, such as those on anticorruption, combatting money laundering and the financing of terrorism, cost sharing, expenditures eligibility, gender, governance, poverty reduction, procurement, use of consultants, and safeguards, as well as due attention to considerations of economy and efficiency as required by the Charter (endnote iii), guide the scope of such staff studies through respective Operations Manual sections. The RRP is posted on ADB’s website in accordance with Operations Manual section L3 (Public Communications).⁴

3. The Board makes decisions concerning loans, and guarantees in accordance with the Charter (endnote v). These may be considered by the Board through the no-objection procedure in accordance with Operations Manual section L4 (No-Objection Procedure).⁵
