I. INTRODUCTION

1. This paper informs the Board of Directors of the process of accreditation for civil society organizations¹ (CSOs) to attend the 55th Annual Meeting to be held in Colombo, Sri Lanka from 2–5 May 2022. These include foundations, research institutes, academic organizations, faith-based organizations, labor unions, and community-based organizations, among others, that are based in Asian Development Bank (ADB) members.

2. The primary purpose of CSO attendance at ADB Annual Meetings is to create an opportunity for them to learn about ADB's operations and to engage in dialogue with other participants, including members of the Board of Directors, Management, senior staff, and delegations from ADB members. The CSOs are active in development in Asia and the Pacific and welcome the opportunity to exchange knowledge and views at the Annual Meeting. Most ADB-assisted loan projects involve CSOs in some way—from providing input to consultations on design to facilitating community consultations, conducting surveys, monitoring social aspects, and implementing project components. Due to their involvement, ADB has included a dedicated civil society agenda in the Annual Meeting for the last 27 years.

II. ACCREDITATION PROCESS

3. To participate in an Annual Meeting, CSOs must be accredited by ADB prior to the meeting through a process coordinated by the NGO and Civil Society Center (NGOC) of the Sustainable Development and Climate Change Department (SDCC). NGOC has prepared two lists: (i) accredited CSOs that have participated in Annual Meetings from 2016 to 2021 (Appendix 1), and (ii) CSOs accredited before 2020 that have not attended an Annual Meeting during 2016 to 2021 (Appendix 2).

4. Paras. 5–10 explain the accreditation process for (i) previously accredited CSOs, and (ii) CSOs that wish to obtain ADB accreditation to attend the 55th Annual Meeting.

A. Accreditation of Civil Society Organizations which have previously been accredited for the Annual Meeting

5. CSOs provided in Appendix 1 and Appendix 2 are deemed to have been accredited by SDCC to attend the 55th Annual Meeting.

B. Accreditation for Civil Society Organizations wishing to participate in the Annual Meeting for the first time

6. In addition to those which have previously been accredited and attended, there will be CSOs which will seek first-time accreditation in order to participate in the 55th Annual Meeting. The application form for requesting accreditation will be available on the ADB Annual Meeting website by January 2022. CSOs are required to complete the form and submit supporting papers that provide information about the organization, including a valid certificate of registration.

7. NGOC screens requests for accreditation in accordance with the principles and criteria for engaging CSOs, in the Cooperation between ADB and NGOs (the Policy).² In the Policy, NGOs are defined as independent of government, and not created for financial or material gain. Recognizing the diversity of civil society, the Policy states that ADB's engagement will focus primarily on organizations which address social and humanitarian issues of development, individual and community welfare and well-being, disadvantage, and poverty, as well as environmental and natural resources protection, management, and improvement¹. Important criteria for engagement include the organization's legal status and credibility, among others.³ Based on these, NGOC will endeavor to confirm that the CSO (i) operates legally in an ADB member, (ii) is independent of the state and has not been created for profit-making purposes, and (iii) engages in activities related to development policy and practice relevant to ADB operations.

8. If the CSO satisfies these three criteria, NGOC will forward a recommendation for accreditation to the Director General of SDCC for endorsement. If the CSO does not satisfy the three criteria, NGOC will inform the CSO of which screening criteria it has not met and seek clarification from the CSO on this.

9. The accreditation process for new CSOs will not proceed unless the CSO has been successfully screened by NGOC and subsequently endorsed by the Director General of SDCC.

10. Should members of the Board of Directors wish to invite other CSOs to participate in the 55th Annual Meeting, they may forward those names to NGOC for assessment against the three criteria cited in para. 7. To allow sufficient time to undertake screening procedures and issue invitations, the names and contact information for CSOs recommended by members of the Board of Directors should be submitted to NGOC through the Office of the Secretary by 15 February 2022.

III. INVITATIONS

11. All ADB-accredited CSOs may participate in the 55th Annual Meeting. If needed, NGOC may set a limit on the number of representatives from each CSO. Starting upon the launch of the Annual Meeting registration period, NGOC will send out an e-mail invitation (using the contact details provided to ADB through a centralized database) to representatives of the ADB-accredited CSOs listed in Appendix 1 as well as to first time CSOs that have successfully completed the accreditation process. As in previous years, accredited CSO representatives must register online to attend the Annual Meeting.

12. Representatives of accredited CSOs may also send a request for an invitation to NGOC following instructions that will be posted on the ADB Annual Meeting website. Upon such request, and subject to any limit on the number of representatives for the CSO, NGOC will send the invitation to the CSO representative(s).

² ADB. 1998. Cooperation between Asian Development Bank and Nongovernment Organizations. Manila.

³ In 1998, ADB approved its policy on cooperation with NGOs, which remains in effect. Since the policy was adopted, the use of the term "nongovernment organization" has evolved considerably. Like ADB, most development partners currently use the term "civil society organization," because it is considered more inclusive. In 2005, ADB renamed the "NGO Center" the "NGO and Civil Society Center". As such, the updated version of OM Section E4 approved in May 2021 replaces NGO with CSO throughout the document.
