

U.K. MiFIR PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ECPs ONLY TARGET MARKET – Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer’s product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is only eligible counterparties, as defined in the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook (“COBS”), and professional clients, as defined in Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (“U.K. MiFIR”); and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the manufacturer’s target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the “U.K. MiFIR Product Governance Rules”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer’s target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

ADB does not fall under the scope of application of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”) or U.K. MiFIR. Consequently, ADB does not qualify as an “investment firm”, “manufacturer” or “distributor” for the purposes of either MiFID II or U.K. MiFIR.

BofA Securities

The date of this Pricing Supplement is 10 March 2021.

This pricing supplement (the “Pricing Supplement”) is issued to give details of an issue of MXN1,050,000,000 4.70 per cent. Notes due 12 March 2024 (the “Notes”) by the Asian Development Bank (“ADB”) under its Global Medium-Term Note Program and to provide information supplemental to the Prospectus referred to below.

This Pricing Supplement supplements the terms and conditions of the Notes set forth in the Prospectus dated 9 December 2020 (as amended and supplemented and together with the documents incorporated by reference therein, the “Prospectus”) and should be read in conjunction with the Prospectus. Unless otherwise defined in this Pricing Supplement, capitalized terms used herein have the meanings given to them in the Prospectus.

The issue of the Notes was authorized pursuant to a global borrowing authorization of the Board of Directors of ADB dated 9 December 2020.

This Pricing Supplement does not constitute, and may not be used for the purposes of, an offer or solicitation by anyone in any jurisdiction in which such an offer or solicitation is not authorized or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such an offer or solicitation, and no action is being taken to permit an offering of the Notes or the distribution of this Pricing Supplement in any jurisdiction where such action is required.

The Notes are not required to be and have not been registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Notes have not been approved or disapproved by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or any state securities commission nor has the Commission or any state securities commission passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this Pricing Supplement. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense in the United States.

The distribution of this Pricing Supplement or the Prospectus and the offer and sale of the Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. Persons into whose possession this Pricing Supplement or the Prospectus comes are required by ADB and the Manager to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers and sales of Notes and on the distribution of this Pricing Supplement or the Prospectus, see “Plan of Distribution” in the Prospectus.

The Notes are not the obligation of any government.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following items are the particular terms and conditions of the Notes to which this Pricing Supplement relates. In case of any conflict between such terms and conditions and the terms and conditions set forth in the Prospectus, the terms and conditions set forth in this Pricing Supplement shall govern.

Additional Information

The Notes are denominated in MXN. Since the United Mexican States is not an ADB member country, ADB will not enjoy in the United Mexican States its usual rights, immunities, privileges and exemptions which are conferred upon ADB by the Agreement Establishing the Asian Development Bank and by statutes, laws and regulations of member countries. Such privileges include immunity with respect to exchange controls and an exemption from withholding taxes with respect to payments on ADB's debt securities.

While the United Mexican States does not currently have in effect any exchange control rules or regulations or rules or regulations that restrict the ability to exchange MXN into foreign currencies or vice versa, no assurance can be given that these rules or regulations will not be imposed in the future, as it has been the case in the past, or that the conversion of MXN into foreign currencies or vice versa will be possible or will not be limited, totally or partially. If, due to the imposition of exchange controls or other circumstances beyond the control of ADB, MXN are not available or expected to be available to ADB, ADB will be entitled to satisfy its obligations to holders of the Notes in respect of such payment by making such payments in U.S. dollars on the basis of the Market Exchange Rate (as defined and more fully described in Appendix A below) applicable on the date of such payment. Any payment made by ADB under such circumstances in U.S. dollars shall constitute valid payment by ADB, will fully discharge ADB hereunder (without ADB having any further obligation) and shall not constitute a default in respect of the Notes.

Under current Mexican law, no withholding taxes will be applicable to payments of principal, interest or other payments made by ADB on the Notes to investors, because ADB is neither a resident of the United Mexican States for tax purposes, nor making interest payments from the territory of the United Mexican States or subject to taxation in the United Mexican States. However, no assurance can be given that applicable Mexican law will not change in the future and that such withholding taxes will be deemed to apply in respect of payments under the Notes. The Notes do not require ADB to compensate the holders of the Notes or gross-up in respect of payments of principal, interest or other payments under the Notes, in the event of a change in Mexican law that results in withholding taxes being deducted from, or imposed on, payments on the Notes by ADB.

The MXN has generally been a volatile currency and fluctuates in value against other currencies. Also, the MXN has been the subject of significant devaluations in the past, and may significantly devalue in the future against other currencies. In that event, the MXN received by a holder of the Notes may not be sufficient to purchase the same amount of a foreign currency, as the foreign currency equivalent at some other time on or after the issuance of the Notes.

Use of Proceeds

The net proceeds of the issue of the Notes will be included in the ordinary capital resources of ADB which will then be allocated to a special sub-portfolio therein and tracked against the disbursements to Eligible Projects (as defined below). As long as the Notes are outstanding, the balance of the sub-portfolio will be reduced, at the end of each quarter, by amounts matching the disbursements made during the quarter with respect to the Eligible Projects. Pending such disbursement, the sub-portfolio will be invested in accordance with ADB's liquidity policy.

Eligible projects under ADB's Green Bond framework ("Eligible Projects") include projects funded by ADB, in whole or in part, that (i) target a reduction of greenhouse gas emissions into the atmosphere or removal of greenhouse gas emissions from the atmosphere ("Climate Change Mitigation Projects") and/or (ii) target the reduction of the vulnerability of human or natural systems to the consequences of climate change and enhance resilience and adaptive capacity ("Climate Change Adaptation Projects").

Examples of Climate Change Mitigation Projects would typically include, without limitation, those that fall under the following sectors:

- Renewable energy – projects that use energy resources that can be naturally replenished (solar, wind, geothermal, and small hydro energy generation);

- Energy efficiency – projects that deliver more energy services with the same energy input (excluding fossil fuel projects); and
- Sustainable transport – projects that provide accessible, safe, environmentally friendly, and affordable transportation.

Examples of Climate Change Adaptation Projects would typically include, without limitation, those that fall under the following sectors:

- Energy – projects that help improve energy security (excluding fossil fuel projects);
- Water and other urban infrastructure and services – projects that improve water security and livelihoods of vulnerable urban populations, such as, providing urban flood protection; and
- Transport - projects that reduce the vulnerability of transport infrastructure.

The above examples of Eligible Projects are for illustrative purposes only and no assurance can be provided that disbursements for projects with these specific characteristics will be made by ADB during the term of the Notes.

Risk Warning

There are significant risks associated with the Notes including, but not limited to, exchange rate risk, price risk and liquidity risk. Investors should consult their own financial, legal, accounting and tax advisors about the risks associated with an investment in these Notes, the appropriate tools to analyse that investment, and the suitability of the investment in each investor's particular circumstances. No investor should purchase the Notes unless that investor understands and has sufficient financial resources to bear the price, market liquidity, structure and other risks associated with an investment in these Notes (including, but not limited to, any political, economic and other factors which could affect the value of, and return on, the Notes). Investors should be aware that the methodology for determining any foreign exchange rate may result in the fixed interest amount (payable pursuant to paragraph 16 herein), the Final Redemption Amount or any Early Redemption Amount (as the case may be) of the Notes being significantly less than anticipated or even zero.

Listing Application

This Pricing Supplement comprises the details required to list the issue of Notes described herein pursuant to the listing of the Global Medium-Term Note Program of ADB.

Material Adverse Change Statement

There has been no material adverse change in the financial position or prospects of ADB since the date of the financial statements included in the Information Statement of ADB, which was most recently published on 24 April 2020.

Recent Developments

On 22 May 2020, ADB's Board of Governors approved the following with respect to its 2019 reported net income of U.S.$1,530.5 million, after appropriation of guarantee fees to the special reserve:

- a. U.S.$461.2 million representing adjustments for the net unrealized gains for the year ended 31 December 2019, be added to the cumulative revaluation adjustments account;
- b. U.S.$615.7 million be allocated to the ordinary reserve;
- c. U.S.$259.5 million be allocated to the Asian Development Fund;
- d. U.S.$130.0 million be allocated to the Technical Assistance Special Fund;
- e. U.S.$30.0 million be allocated to the Regional Cooperation and Integration Fund;
- f. U.S.$24.0 million be allocated to the Climate Change Fund; and
- g. U.S.$10.0 million be allocated to the Asia Pacific Disaster Response Fund.

On 1 September 2020, Ashok Lavasa succeeded Diwakar Gupta as Vice-President for Private Sector Operations and Public-Private Partnerships.

On 1 February 2021, Bruce Gosper succeeded Deborah Stokes as Vice-President for Administration and Corporate Management.

Responsibility

ADB accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Pricing Supplement which, when read together with the Prospectus referred to above, contains all information that is material in the context of the issue of the Notes.

APPENDIX A

If any amount is to be paid in U.S. dollars (USD, the alternative currency) upon the occurrence of a Settlement Disruption Event, such amount shall be calculated by Bank of America, N.A. as the Calculation Agent (as defined below) (but in no event later than two London, Mexico City and New York Business Days before a payment) in an amount per Specified Denomination which shall be equal to the greater of zero and the amount produced by the following provisions, such amount to be rounded to the nearest whole cent (with 0.5 cent being rounded upwards):

$$\text{Relevant MXN Amount} \div \text{Market Exchange Rate}$$

ADB shall be entitled to satisfy its obligations to holders of the Notes in respect of such payment by making such payments in USD. Any payment made by ADB in USD as a result of a Settlement Disruption Event shall constitute valid payment and shall not constitute a default in respect of the Notes. The holders of the Notes shall be responsible for all currency exchange costs.

For the purposes of these provisions:

“Calculation Agent” means Bank of America, N.A. in accordance with the provisions of the Calculation Agent Agreement entered into between ADB and the Calculation Agent (as amended and/or supplemented from time to time). (All references to the Calculation Agent shall include any successor or successors to Bank of America, N.A. as Calculation Agent in respect of the Notes.)

The determination by the Calculation Agent of any amount or of any state of affairs, circumstance, event or other matter, or the formation of any opinion or the exercise of any discretion required or permitted to be determined, formed or exercised by the Calculation Agent under the Notes and pursuant to the Calculation Agent Agreement shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on all parties (including, but not limited to, ADB and the Noteholders) and shall be made in its sole discretion in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner in accordance with the Calculation Agent Agreement. In performing its duties under the Notes, the Calculation Agent shall act in accordance with the Calculation Agent Agreement. Any delay, deferral or forbearance by the Calculation Agent in the performance or exercise of any of its obligations or its discretion under the Notes or the Calculation Agent Agreement including, without limitation, the giving of any notice by it to any person, shall not affect the validity or binding nature of any later performance or exercise of such obligation or discretion, and neither the Calculation Agent nor ADB shall bear any liability in respect of, or consequent upon, any such delay, deferral or forbearance;

“Market Exchange Rate” means the average of such firm quotes (expressed in MXN per 1 USD) as the Calculation Agent is able to obtain from the Reference Dealers (as defined below) for the sale of MXN and the purchase of USD, on the day falling two London, Mexico City and New York Business Days prior to a payment. The highest and lowest of such quotes will be disregarded and the arithmetic mean of the remaining quotations shall be the Market Exchange Rate, provided, however, that if fewer than four (but at least two) Reference Dealers provide such a firm quote then the average of the quotes actually obtained shall apply. If only one Reference Dealer provides a firm quote then such quote shall apply, and if no Reference Dealer provides such a firm quote, then the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, shall establish the Market Exchange Rate in its sole discretion;

“Reference Dealers” means five leading dealers, banks or banking corporations, which deal in the MXN/USD exchange market, selected by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner;

“Relevant MXN Amount” means the MXN amount per Specified Denomination which would have been payable on the relevant date if the Settlement Disruption Event had not occurred;

“London, Mexico City and New York Business Day” means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London, Mexico City and New York; and “Settlement Disruption Event” means, as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, the approval or effectiveness of any laws, rules, regulations or decrees, or the official interpretation thereof, by any legislative, governmental or judicial authority of the United Mexican States (or any other country), including the Banco de México (the Mexican Central Bank), which (a) require non-residents of the United Mexican States to obtain permission from the Banco de México or other authority to obtain, exchange or pay MXN, (b) make it unlawful to maintain in effect, or make any payment under, the Notes in MXN or holding MXN, (c) restrict, in any manner, the ability of any person (including a non-resident of the United Mexican States) to obtain MXN or convert MXN into foreign currencies (including the United States dollar), (d) otherwise regulate the purchase or holding of MXN in any manner that has a material adverse effect on the Notes or the rights of holders thereof, (e) make it impossible to calculate the value of the MXN vis-à-vis other currencies, (f) change the currency unit of the United Mexican States from the MXN, (g) has the direct or indirect effect of hindering, limiting or restricting the transfer of MXN from the United Mexican States to recipients resident in another country, or (h) restricting or not permitting non-Mexican residents of the United Mexican States to maintain accounts in the United Mexican States or in respect of MXN.
