... = data not available at cutoff date; | = marks break in the series, 0 or 0.0 = magnitude is less than half of unit employed; - = magnitude equals zero; * = provisional/preliminary/estimate/budget figures; cif = cost, insurance and freight; fob = free on board;

GDP = gross domestic product; GNI = gross national income; IMF = International Monetary Fund; NPISH = nonprofit institution serving households; SDR = special drawing right; US = United States.

a Staff estimates for 2006–2009 and 2011–2014 are based on 2005, 2010, and 2015 census of population data.

b Refers to persons 15 years old and over.

c Refers to cash work and unpaid village work. For 2005, employment figures by industry include only paid (cash work) workers; as such, sum of details may not add up to the total employed population.

d Refers to agriculture/fisheries in 2005.

e Refers to electricity in 2005 and utilities, repair, and installation of equipment in 2010.

f Refers to construction and related activities in 2005.

g Refers to hotels/motels in 2005.

h Refers to transport/communication in 2005 and transportation, storage, and courier activities in 2010.

i Refers to financial services in 2005 and financial, insurance, and real estate activities in 2010.

j Generally refers to public administration in 2005 and includes public administration, sanitary services, education services, medical services, welfare institution, professional bodies, church services, entertainment, library, repair services, laundry services, household services, personal services, and international bodies. In 2010, includes professional, scientific, and technical activities; administrative and support service activities; public administration and defense; compulsory social security; education; human health and social work activities; arts, entertainment, and recreation; other service activities; activities of households as employers; undifferentiated goods- and services-producing activities of households for own use; and activities of extraterritorial organizations and bodies.

Kiribati

- k For 2005, total unemployed excludes village workers. For 2010, unemployed includes both cash and village workers; as such, unemployment figures between the census years may not be directly comparable.
- l Due to significant improvements in methodology and use of source data starting 2008, data from 2009 onward may not be directly comparable with the previous years.
- m Refers to agriculture and fishing.
- n Includes water supply; sewerage, waste management, and remediation activities.
- o Refers to wholesale and retail trade.
- p Refers to hotels and restaurants.
- q Refers to communications.
- r Refers to financial intermediation.
- s Refers to real estate (housing business).
- t Includes administrative and support service activities and collectively refers to business services.
- u Includes education and human health and social work activities, and collectively refers to the government sector.
- v Includes other service activities and collectively refers to other community, social, and personal services.
- w Derived from balance-of-payments data.
- x Per capita GDP and GNI are based on population data from national accounts adjusted to year end.
- y Refers to Tarawa Retail Price Index. Data for the most recent base year reflect the inclusion of drinks, utilities, education, and recreation items.
- z Due to significant improvements in methodology and use of source data, figures from 2010 onward are not directly comparable with the previous years.
- aa Includes income from the Revenue Equalization Reserve Fund (RERF), along with central government and development, special, and local government funds in 2010–2015.
- ab Includes RERF income.
- ac Figures exclude nonbudgetary surplus/deficit; hence, the item refers to overall budgetary surplus/deficit.
- ad Excludes donor-funded activities, local government expenditure, and expenditure funded from special funds.
- ae Refers to welfare and environment.
- af Refers to commerce and labor affairs.
- ag Kiribati's availability of official balance of payments based on the sixth edition of the IMF's Balance of Payments Manual started in 2006. Data for earlier periods are IMF-converted estimates based on the fifth edition; hence, figures from 2006 onward are not directly comparable with the previous years. Further, due to ongoing improvements in compilation methods and use of source data, some data are not available and further derivation is not feasible.
- ah Includes balance on repairs and procured goods.
- ai Refers to percent of GDP.
